

Music
without limits

Muzika
be sienu,

INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION & FESTIVAL MUSIC WITHOUT LIMITS

14-23 August 2022

Druskininkai (Lithuania)

Participants of the Competition:

I. Soloist (piano, harpsichord, jazz, wind, string, percussion, folk instruments, organ, vocal).

II. Ensemble (jazz, chamber instrumental, vocal, vocal-instrumental, piano ensembles, ensembles with early instruments).

III. Piano concerts with orchestra.

Participants are divided into age groups (no age limit).

Amateurs can participate in all competition categories.

Participants of the Competition and Festival:

Will be able to perform in city museums, sanatoriums, other concert venues, to participate in master classes, seminars, to get acquainted with the organ, harpsichord.

Jury and mastery courses will lead:

E. Indjic (France), M. Jepsen (Denmark), J. Drzewiecki (Poland),

M. Jacobs (Sweden), M. Villar de Rohde (Argentina), G. Gedvilaitė, S. I. Kummer

(Germany), E. Pylatyuk, I. Pylatyuk (Ukraine), Representatives of Lithuania –

dr. V. Landsbergis, P. Vyšniauskas, A. Žvirbytė, R. Vaitkevičiūtė, V. Vitaitė and more.

Awards:

Diplomas, special prizes (concerts in Poland, Germany, Denmark, France, Costa Rica and elsewhere, master classes) and Grand Prix winners will be awarded cash prizes.

Special prizes for the performance of a works by a Ukrainian composers.

News:

Reduced participation fee!

You can only become a participant of the festival by paying 50% of the participation fee.

15 Ukraine war refugees - participants of the competition or festival will be accommodated, fed and exempted from the tax of charge.

More detailed information and regulations can be found on our website <http://www.musicwithoutlimits.lt/en/>

Information is provided by e-mail participation@musicwithoutlimits.lt